Reading

You are encouraged to read widely throughout your History studies.

Before you begin your study of the Early Tudors it would be helpful if you read background information and made notes about:

- The Wars of the Roses - key figures, battles and outcomes.
- How the Battle of Bosworth led to the Tudor Dynasty.

500 Words

Write approximately 500 words to answer the following two questions;

- How did Henry VII become King?
- Why was religion so important between 1509 and 1558?

Key reading for History

Students should be encouraged to read widely. To achieve the highest grades, a wide range of texts should be read and students should not focus on one key text.
